What is TotallySmart?

This is the new SMART way to read a magazine. Use your mobile phone to scan the QR Code on relevant pages and jump straight to a customized mobile phone page with all the information on that business. Directions, opening hours, telephone number and more right in your hand. Great for out and about!

Most Japanese phones have a QR reader or check out the iPhone app store or the Andoid Market.

Tetera

Friendly, family run Mexican restaurant close to Camp Foster

TETERA is a small Mexican restaurant with a really good, homely feel. It's not just about the food, which is excellent, but the warmth of the staff and their service. Most Mexican decorations in the restaurant have been donated by their loyal customers.

TETERA is proud of the ingredients they use. They use organic vegetables including jalapeño and habanero and also prepare two different home made sauces.

For lunch, they serve set menus with reasonable prices ranging from ¥650 to ¥830.

I had the Mexican rice lunch set (¥830) which included tacos, enchiladas and chili con carne all on one plate! It had a mild flavour but you can still feel the spiciness of the natural herbs and spices without it being overpowering. The sets also include salad, soup, and all you can drink (soft drinks).

At night time there is a view of Chatan from the window. It's a great spot for beer and tacos, while the sun sets.

"Enchilada set A" and "Quesadilla set" are most popular menu items. You will definitely come away full all for a great price!

Dive Update

Warm waters..

The water's warm and the dive season's underway! Come on in!

The dive season is now in full swing. The ocean is warm and the divers are dusting off their gear and getting wet again. The professional staff at Reef Encounters would like to remind you of a few things before you jump back in! If your diving gear has not been used or serviced for a while, come by and have one of the pro's at Reef Encounters ensure that your regulators and BC are ready for the summer season.

Even more important than having your gear ready is to ensure that you are ready. Start out your dive season with a few easy dives to get back in the swing of things or better yet visit your local dive shop for a quick refresher course to make sure your skills are sharp.

As the dive season kicks off, the team at Reef Encounters has some great local trips planned for you. Adding to our menu of daily trips to the Keramas for swimming with manta rays, turtles and sharks, we are adding two new wrecks to the menu for advanced and technical divers. We will also be adding weekly night boat dives to our regular scheduled trips. Exploring the war relics off the coast of Yomitan is a regular dive also – these sites will allow you to possibly collect your own WW II relic coke bottle.

Additionally, this spring for those interested in going deeper and staying longer our tech program will be going full swing this June. Everything from Intro to Tech to Trimix Level II getting you ready to explore the deeper reaches of the reefs and wrecks here on Okinawa.

Open 7 days a week from 9am - 6pm Boat departs daily at 9am

Sweet Tooth?

We've picked six of the best Okinawa sweet snacks that make a great local alternative to the morning doughnut.

Yukishio Chinsuko

Chinsuko is one of the traditional sweets from the time of the Ryukyu Kingdom. It taste like shortbread, but slightly salty. It is an exquisite combination of natural tastes. Yukishio is made from deep ocean water on Miyako island and contains 18 kinds of minerals.

Beniimo Tarte

It's a moist tart filled with rich unsweetened Okinawan purple sweet potato.

It also tastes good warmed up in a toaster oven.

Chinsuko-Chocolat

It's a crunchy cookie with creamy chocolate. It's modestly sweet. The texture is slightly like a honeycomb candy bar. It's great with coffee!

Ume-Kokutou

This is a great combination of Okinawa brown sugar with sour plum. If you didn't know the ingredients it would remind you of liquorice candy.

One piece is not enough and the different sensations of sweet and sour will mean one pack doesn't last long!

Peanuts Kokutou

These are roasted peanuts with brown sugar. If you love honey roasted peanuts, you will love these.

It's another Okinawan snack that once you open a pack it's going to be very difficult to stop!

Pineapple Candy

A simple but delicious combination of Okinawa sugar and pineapple pulp. Kids will love the bright yellow pineapple shaped chunks!

All of the snacks featured here are available from local supermarkets including Jusco and San-A

Okinawa Museum

Feeling the need for some culture?
Check out the prefectural museum.

When you drive down the main street of Omoromachi in Naha City, there is a stand out white building which reminds you of "Gusuku" (the remains of castles in Okinawa). That is the Okinawa Prefectural Museum and Art Museum.

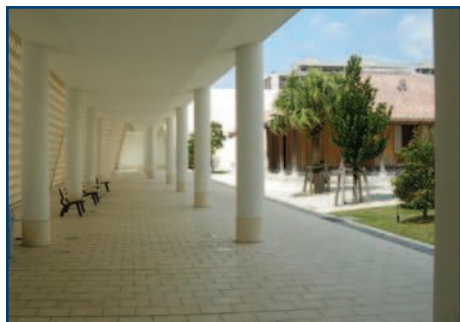

Okinawans built close relations with Asia and the Pacific region in the past, these connections went on to provide a wealth of cultural influences. Okinawa has had so many experience of changing cultures especially between China and Japan. Even though Okinawa has undergone a lot of change, Okinawans have also remained close to nature.

The Museum has permanent exhibitions as well as visiting exhibitions. They have plenty of exhibits, so you can learn about Okinawan history, archaeology, arts and crafts, nature, and ethnology. You can tour the museum in chronological order, giving a feeling of passing through Okinawa's history.

In the general exhibition area, you will see how people lived from the prehistoric age to present day Okinawa. The exhibition of the Ryukyu Kingdom was the most memorable part for me.

You can borrow an iPod for guidance in various foreign languages and in the touch and experience room, there are activities where you can pick up items to observe and learn. It's a great way for kids to learn about Okinawa. It's a great place to visit early on during your stay as it will provide you with a depth of knowledge when you visit other areas of Okinawa.

TiTiCaCa

Tasty Peruvian cuisine in the heart of Okinawa City.

TiTiCaCa opened in 2009, it's named after Lago Titicaca situated between Bolivia and Peru, the homelands of the owners.

When you think of Peruvian food you may have ideas of hot spicy food, but we were pleasantly surprised that it was tasty but not overwhelming.

At lunchtime you can select from 5 different lunch menus which are served with soup, soft-drinks (tea, coffee, or chicha morada) and cake of the day. (All for only ¥600).

We had "Arroz con Pollo" (steamed rice with chicken). It's a traditional dish that is common throughout Latin America and the Caribbean. Common ingredients are rice, chicken, mixed vegetables and Peruvian coriander, served with roast chicken. If you do prefer a spicier taste though, try their "Aji" hot sauce. To drink we had chicha morada, for Peruvians "chicha morada" is a very well known non-alcoholic soft drink made by boiling purple corn, and includes more polyphenol than wine. I expected the taste to be bitter or sour, but it was both sharp and fruity, a really interesting taste and something you won't come across often in Okinawa!

They also have several desserts, "Alfajores," is a Peruvian cookie with caramel cream and homemade cakes. Additionally they do party food too including whole roast chickens for only ¥1500.
